

What We Value...

Satisfied Clients are the Foundation to our Future

AMDEX Corporation places the highest value on Honesty, Integrity, and Performance Excellence. We believe, and have consistently proven that our commitment to these values and service excellence will earn the respect of our growing list of clients and result in continued business success.

Throughout our 23 year history of providing exceptional services to the Federal government, AMDEX has received numerous letters of commendation from our clients. For example, according to a client at U.S. Customs and Border Protection – Department of Homeland Security, AMDEX and its staff “provides ‘Whatever it Takes’ attitude, which is in line with the CBP-TOD mission.” Another client at Customs and Border Protection – Department of Homeland Security, describes the on-site AMDEX staff as “outstanding, responsive, professional and a real asset. I often call them to help in critical situations. They are the best.”

At AMDEX, we understand that satisfied clients are the foundation of our future and we uphold an overriding commitment to excellence in client service and support. Time and time again, we are awarded with re-compete contracts as a result of our professionalism, dedication, and follow-through. After all, “The best reward for work well done is the opportunity to do more.”
